Regional Conferences

BCT organises one-day regional conferences to bring together both volunteer and professional bat workers to network, update their knowledge and develop their skills.

These events also enable sponsors and exhibitors to engage with the delegates to share technological developments and showcase new equipment, wildlife-related arts & crafts or other batty goods.

In 2019, there will be four regional conferences:

- Sat 16 March - South West Bat Conference
- Sat 6 April - North of England Bat Conference
- 11-12 May - Wales Bat Worker's Weekend
- 9 November - Scottish Bat Worker's Conference

Sponsorship: (per event)

- Co-sponsor packages - £1000 (ex VAT)

Exhibition stand: (per event)

- Featured Exhibitor - £120 (ex VAT)
- Large exhibition stand - £90 (ex VAT)
- Standard exhibition stand - £60 (ex VAT)
- Exhibitor delegate rate - £30 per person

BCT's symposia convene stakeholders, partners, researchers and other experts to explore key topics affecting bats and other wildlife.

As a legacy of the event, the results are published as resources for bat workers and other conservationists to draw upon.

In 2019, BCT are planning two symposia:

- 21 May - Lighting Symposium
- 20 November - Woodlands Symposium
