

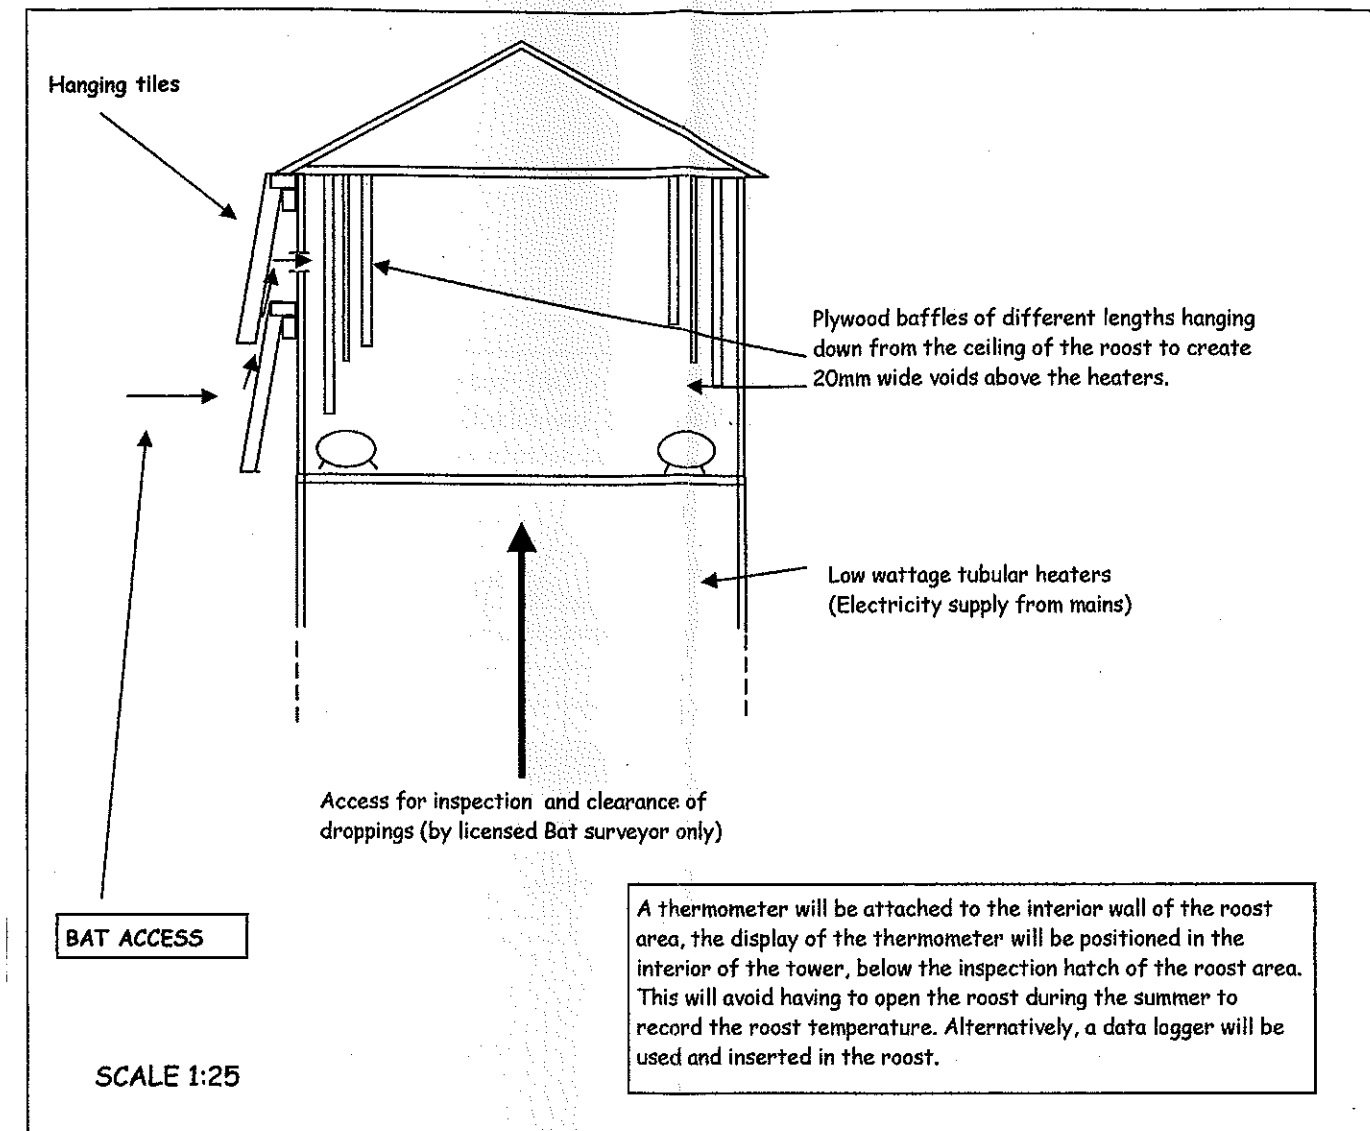

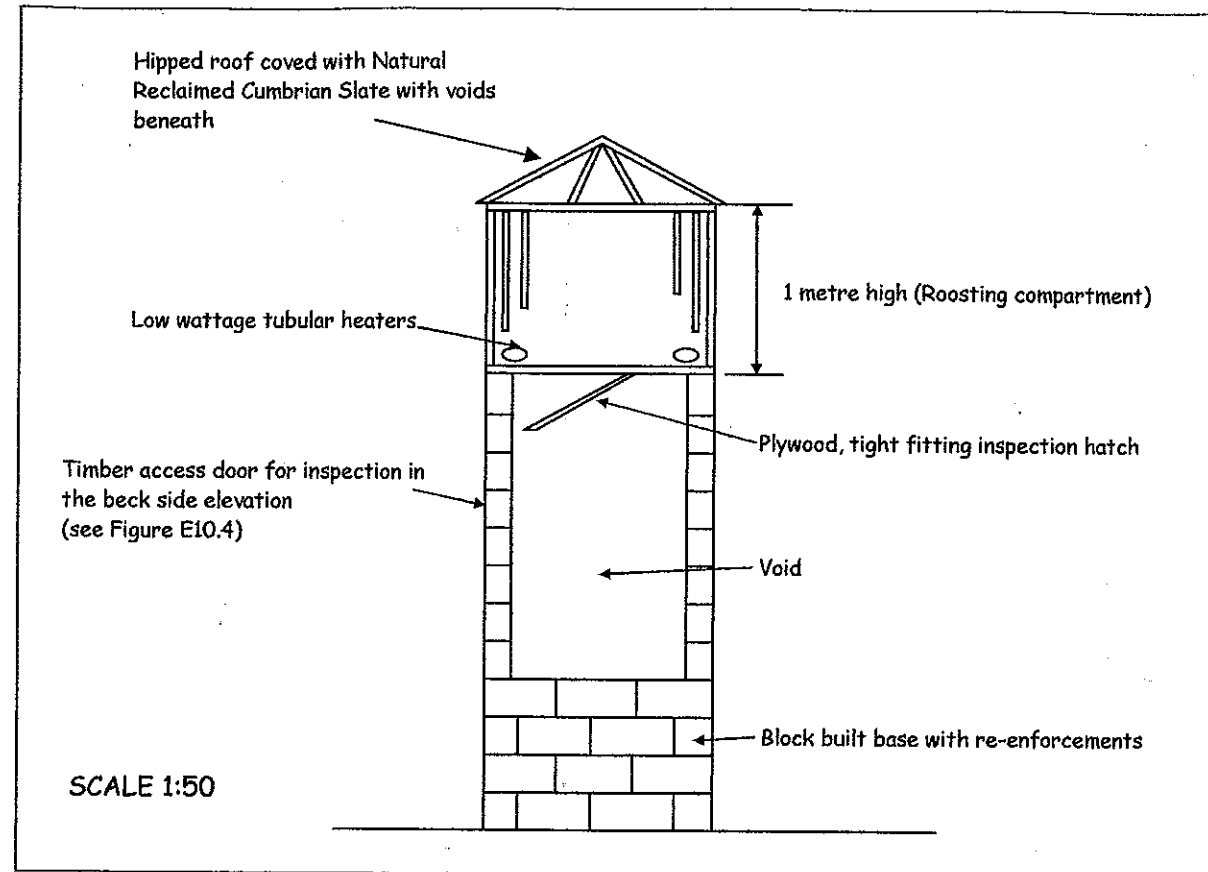

Figure E10.6 Cross section of the interior of the Bat Tower, illustrating the provisions for roosting bats

The plywood baffles hanging from the interior of the roosting compartment will ensure that a range of conditions are created. As the tubular heaters heat the air, the air temperature within the 20mm wide void between each baffle will vary dependent on the distance from the heater.

